— BANGOR DAILY NEWS

Have you ever been fascinated by the distant soaring flight of a hawk or eagle, or been awakened by the mysterious cry of an owl, and wanted to learn more about these captivating, but very shy species? Now you can, with EASTERN BIRDS OF PREY.

Covering all major raptors found east of the Mississippi River (including eagles, hawks, owls, vultures, and kites), here is a book that not only aids in field identification, but details the whole life cycle of each species, including:

- Nesting sites
- Care of the young
- Hunting techniques and prey
- Mating behavior
- Habitat
- Natural History
- Observation guidelines
- Ecological status

AND MORE!

For beginners and advanced birders alike, EASTERN BIRDS OF PREY is an enjoyable and informative resource guide, containing a wealth of uniquely accessible information on the often misunderstood, and sometimes endangered, "hunters of the air."

HAWKS AT MY WINGTIP

by Bill Welch

ISBN 0-89621-098-7

1987

TRADE PAPERBACK — $7.95

A fascinating look at hawk migrations from a vantage point seldom experienced — the sky! The author of HAWKS AT MY WINGTIP, Bill Welch and his wife, Virginia, actually flew alongside these magnificent raptors in an experimental ultra-light plane during the hawks' East Coast migrations.

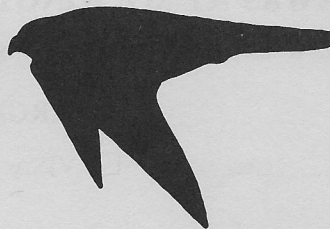

His vivid written and photographic accounts of these remarkable flights capture a sense of timelessness and the feeling of what it must be like to soar with nothing but wind under wings! This accurate yet non-technical book draws the reader into the world of flight.

Included in HAWKS AT MY WINGTIP are:

- ★ understandable explanations of how hawks fly
- ★ a field guide to raptor identification
- ★ hawkwatching reference information
- ★ details of protection and preservation efforts

— ABOUT THE AUTHOR —

Bill Welch is an aeronautical engineer, pilot, photographer and accomplished author whose book reflects his interest in aeronautics, ornithology and conservation. His wife, Virginia, who shares many of the same interests, is responsible for most of the detailed aerial photographs which make HAWKS AT MY WINGTIP so unique.
